

Announcement of Mueangyala Police Station

Subject Measures for the protection of complainants whistleblowing confidentiality

---

Superintendent of Mueangyala Police Station police officer and regular employees Let's jointly announce the protection measures for complainants, whistleblowing, confidentiality Ready to take responsibility for the consequences of the action. Create a safe organization from protection measures for complainants, whistleblowing, confidentiality adhere to moral culture In an organization that will perform duties with a focus on the common interests of people in society with morality in practice Duties and values for the organization or the Mueangyala Police Station should be adhere to as a guideline along with the rules. Other regulations for creating a clean organization Providing services with transparency Be fair to the people who receive the service. And continuously improve the operational quality of Mueangyala Police Station

To achieve protection measures for complainants, whistleblowing, confidentiality Said Mueangyala Police Station Therefore, there are measures to protect complainants, whistleblowers, and confidentiality as follows :

1) Mueangyala Police Station will collect information and identity of whistleblowers or complainant and the complainant is confidential

2) Mueangyala Police Station will disclose information as necessary. With safety in mind and the damage of the reporter, the source of the information, or the relevant person who has been damaged All damages will be alleviated through appropriate and fair procedures.

3) In the event that the complainant or the person who cooperates in the fact-finding investigation can request the Company to impose appropriate protection measures, or the Company may impose protection measures by the complainant Or the person who cooperates in the investigation of facts is not requested. If you see that it is likely to cause damage or insecurity.

4) Mueangyala Police Station will not do any unfair action against whistleblowers or complainants. Whether by changing the job position, job description, workplace work suspension, intimidation interfering with work termination of employment, or any other action that is unfair to whistleblowers or complainants. Or those who cooperate in fact-checking.

5) Mueangyala Police Station provides channels for receiving information or clues, or if people need advice on protection measures for complainants, clues, confidentiality. via Facebook channel, Mueangyala Police Station, RTP Cyber Village

It is hereby announced for general information

Announced on May 10, 2023

Colonel

( Piyapat Tongpunlersgul )

Superintendent of Mueang Police Station